July 20, 2010 - St. Paul, MN

The Recycling Association of Minnesota (RAM) announced today that they are now accepting nominations for the 2010 Annual RAM Awards to be given out at the 15th Annual RAM/SWANA Conference & Show on October 6 & 7. The RAM awards are one of the most prestigious awards given in the state of Minnesota which recognizes the environmental stewardship efforts of non-profit groups, businesses, public entities and individuals that benefit communities in Minnesota.

Individuals or recent programs contributing to the betterment of recycling or other resource conservation efforts in the state of Minnesota are eligible for RAM awards. A RAM member must submit a nomination by filling out a simple nomination form. A nominee does not need to be a RAM member. Awards applications must be received by September 1, 2010.

There are several awards categories which include The Green Project Award, The Public Service Award, The Recycler of the Year Award and the Denise Kolar Award. For a complete description of award categories please or a nomination form go to: <http://www.recycleminnesota.org/htm/proAwards.htm>.

The Recycling Association of Minnesota is committed to promoting resource conservation through waste prevention, reuse, recycling, composting and purchasing practices using the most cost effective and environmentally sound methods available in Minnesota. RAM is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization.
